BankOps

Banking Operations Request Management Platform

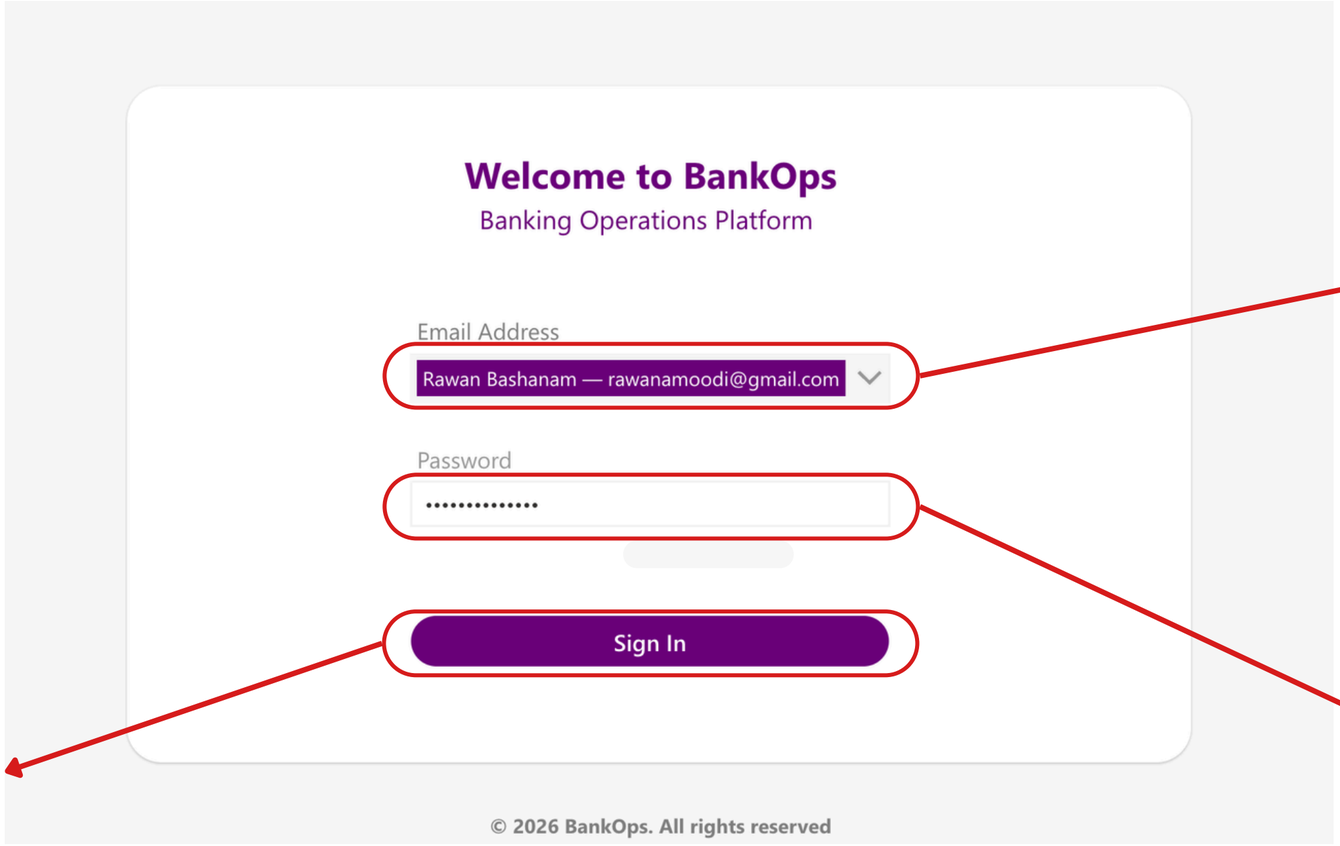

User Guide

Presented By:

Rawan Bashanam

September 2026

Login Screen

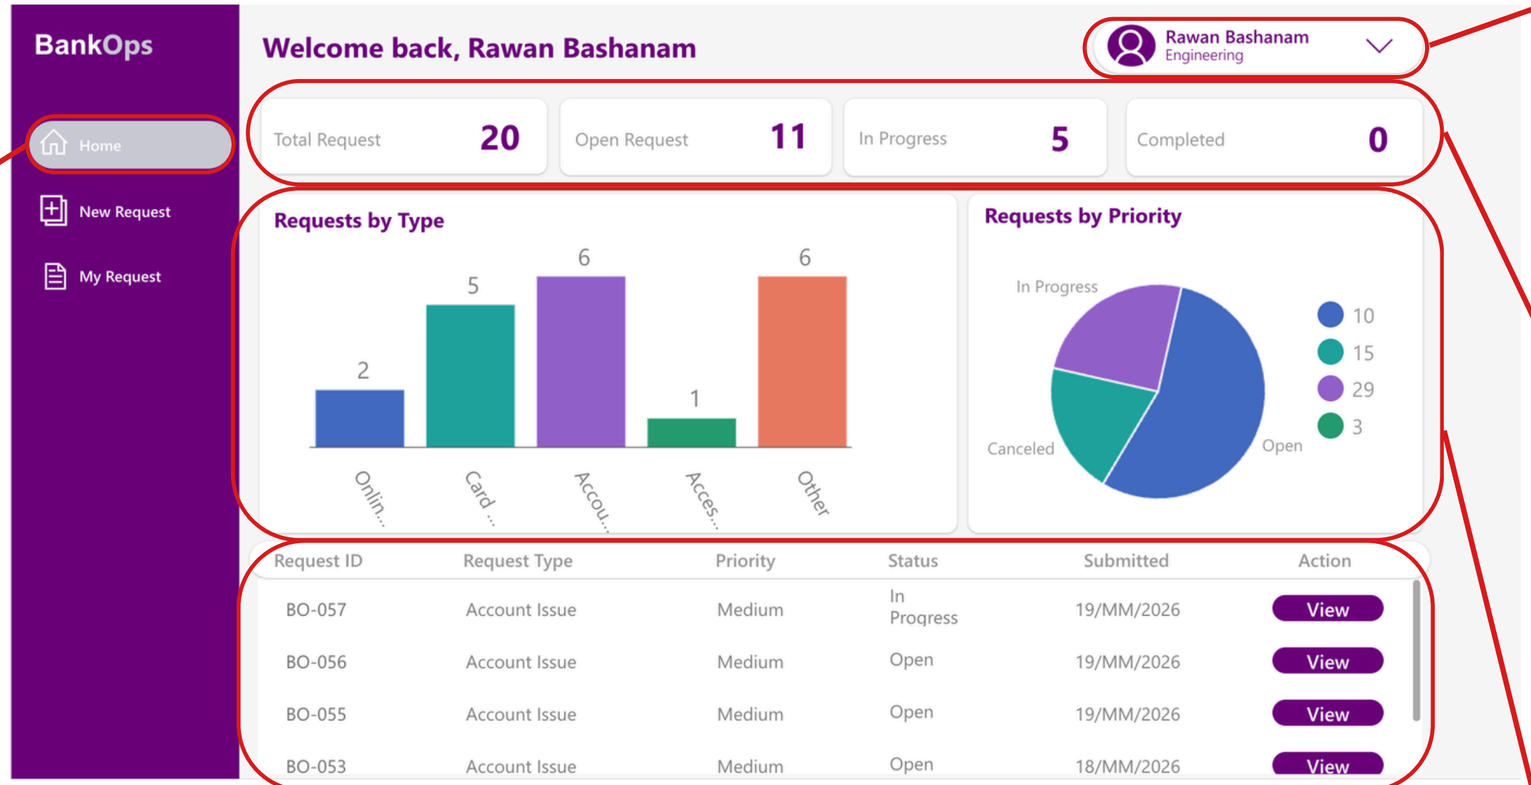

Select a pre-registered email address from the dropdown list

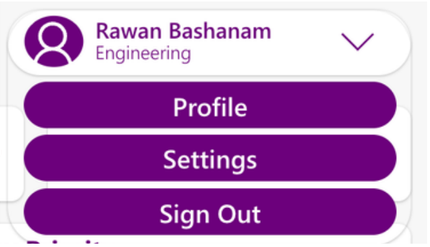

Enter the demo password associated with the selected account

Click Sign In to access the application based on your assigned user role.

Part 1 — Employee

Employee Home Screen

Displays the user's name and department. Click to access Profile, Settings, and Sign Out options.

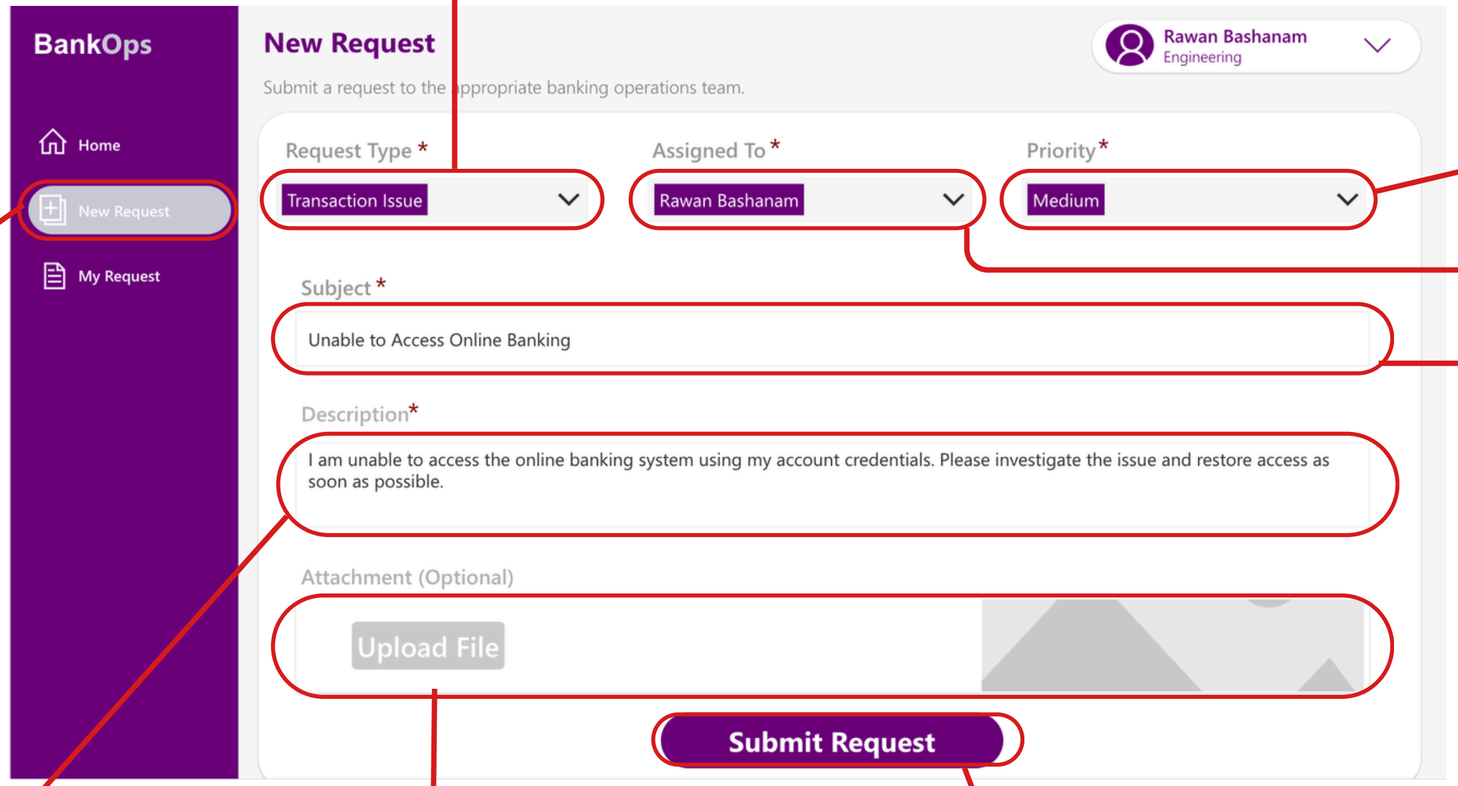

Returns the user to the Home screen.

Displays the total number of requests and the number of Open, In Progress, and Completed requests.

Displays the five most recent requests for a quick overview of request activity.

Presents charts that visualize request statuses and operational activity

New Request Screen

Allows users to select the category of the request based on the available request types.

Allows users to set the request priority to indicate its level of urgency.

Allows users to select the employee responsible for handling the request.

Opens the New Request screen, allowing users to create and submit a new banking operations request.

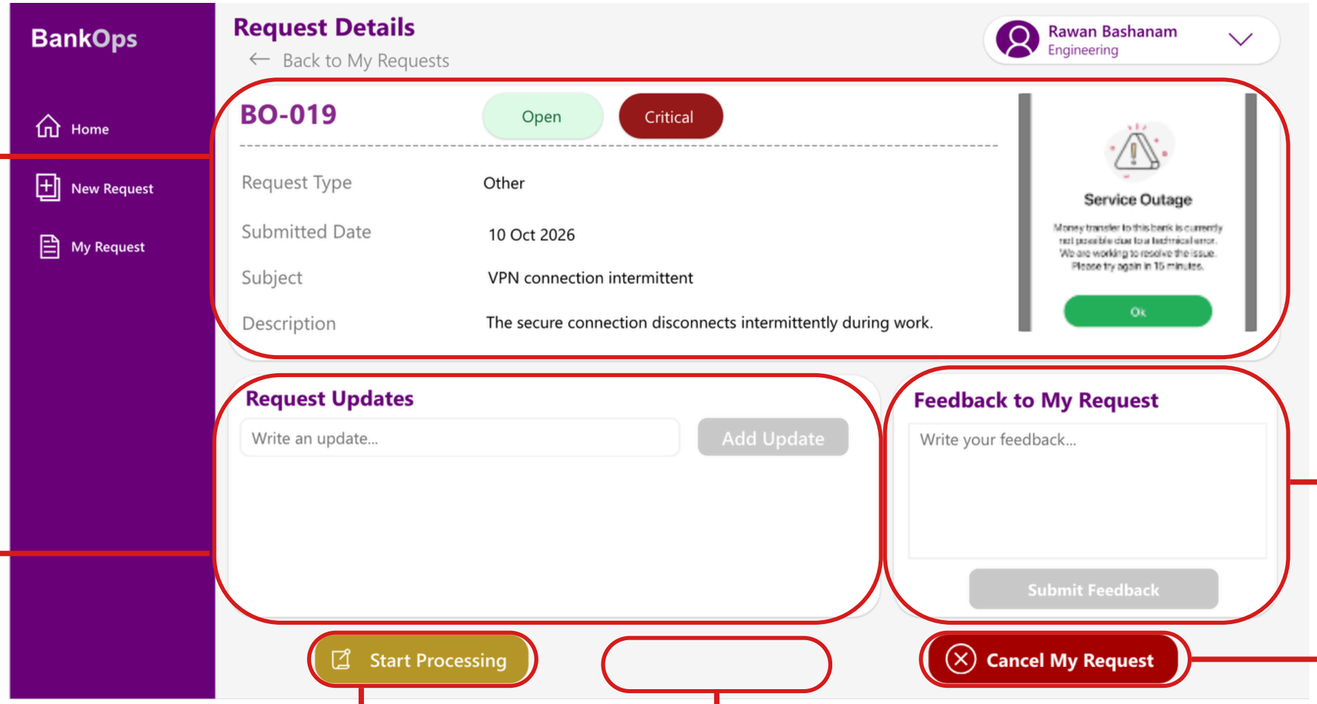

Allows users to provide detailed information about the request, including the issue or service needed.

Allows users to upload an image related to the request to provide additional context or supporting information.

Validates the required information and submits the request to the system for tracking and processing.

Allows users to enter a brief title describing the request.

Request Details Screen

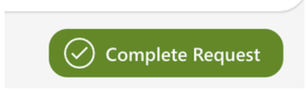

Displays the selected request's information, including its Request ID, subject, description, request type, priority, current status, submission date, and assigned employee.

Allows users to enter feedback related to the selected request and Submits the entered feedback for the selected request.

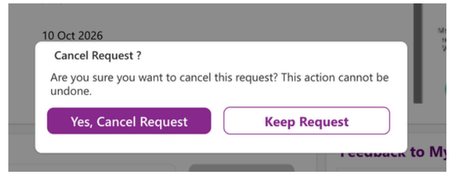

- Displays a chronological history of updates and actions performed on the request, including status changes, cancellations, the responsible user, and the date of each update.
- Allows users to enter a comment or update related to the selected request and Saves the entered update and adds it to the request's update history.

Changes the request status from Open to In Progress to indicate that processing has started.

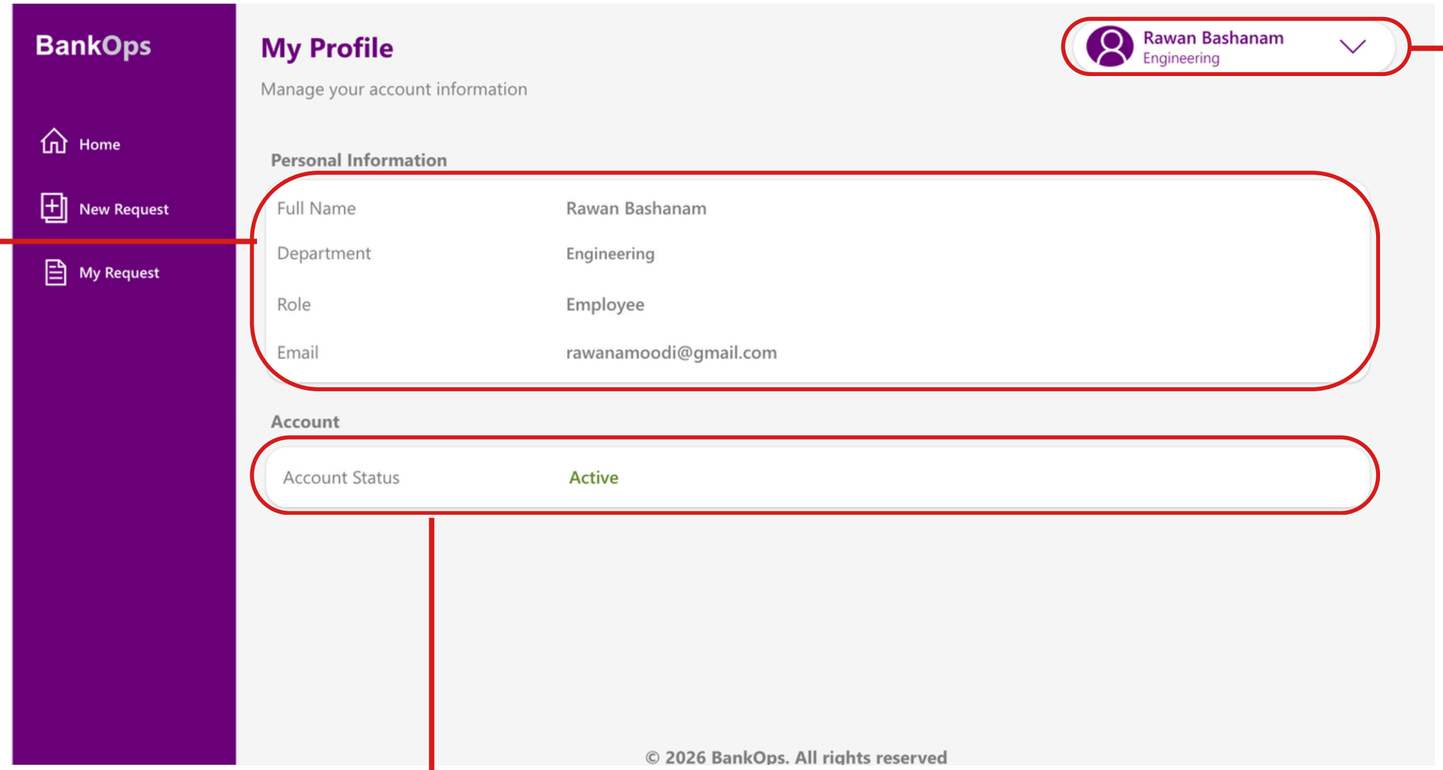

Marks the request as Completed when the processing is finished.

Initiates the request cancellation process and displays a confirmation prompt to ensure the user wants to proceed.

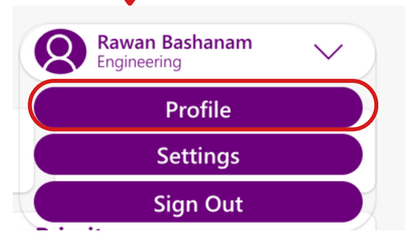

Asks the user to confirm the cancellation before changing the request status to Canceled.

Profile Screen

Displays the user's personal and account information, including the full name, department, role, and email address.

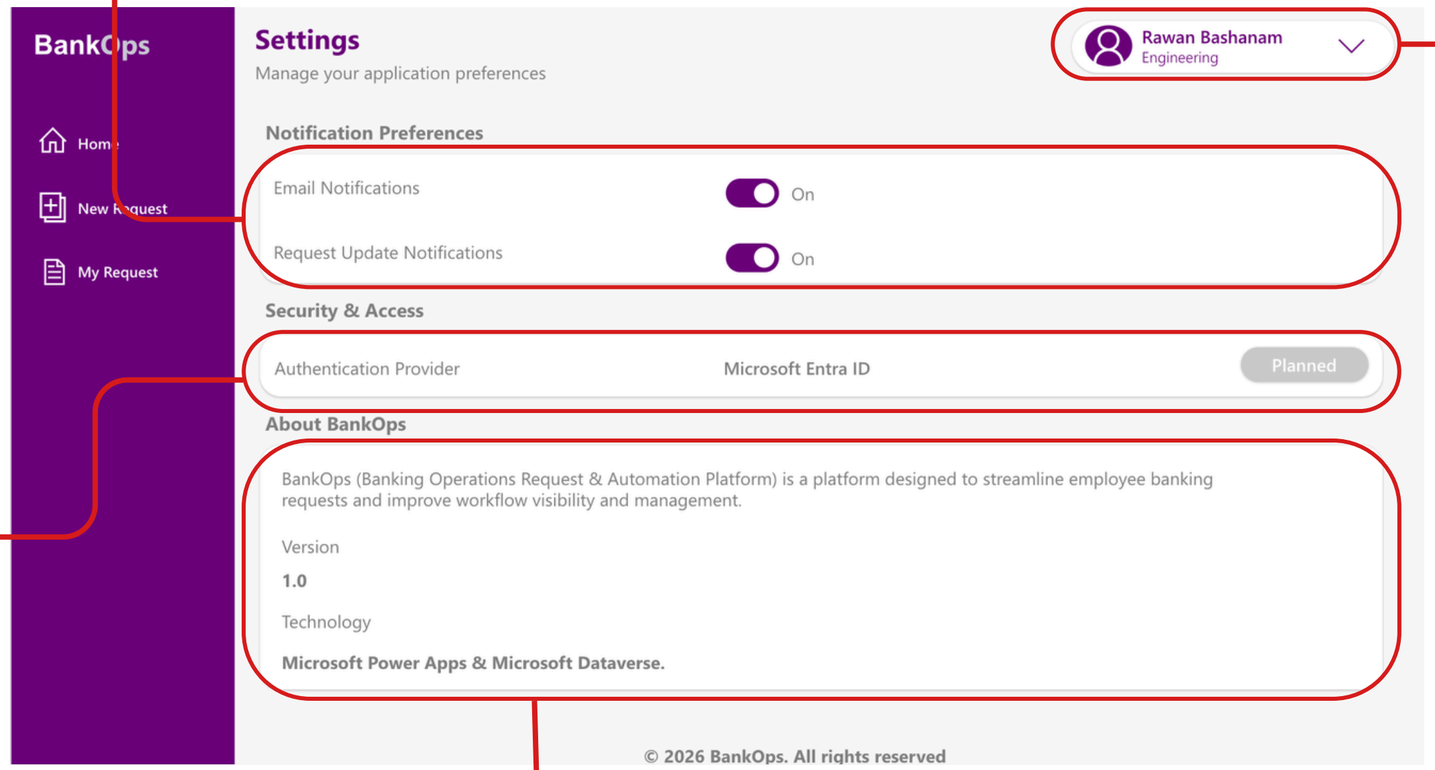

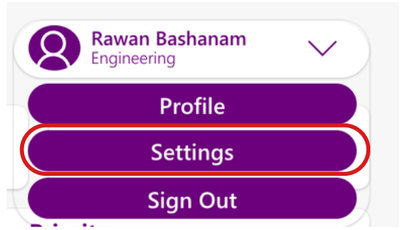

Allows users to navigate to the Profile screen by selecting Profile from the dropdown menu.

Displays the user's current account status, such as Active, Inactive, or Suspended.

Settings Screen

- Allows users to manage their notification preferences for supported email notifications
- Allows users to enable or disable email notifications according to their preferences
- Allows users to enable or disable email notifications related to request updates.

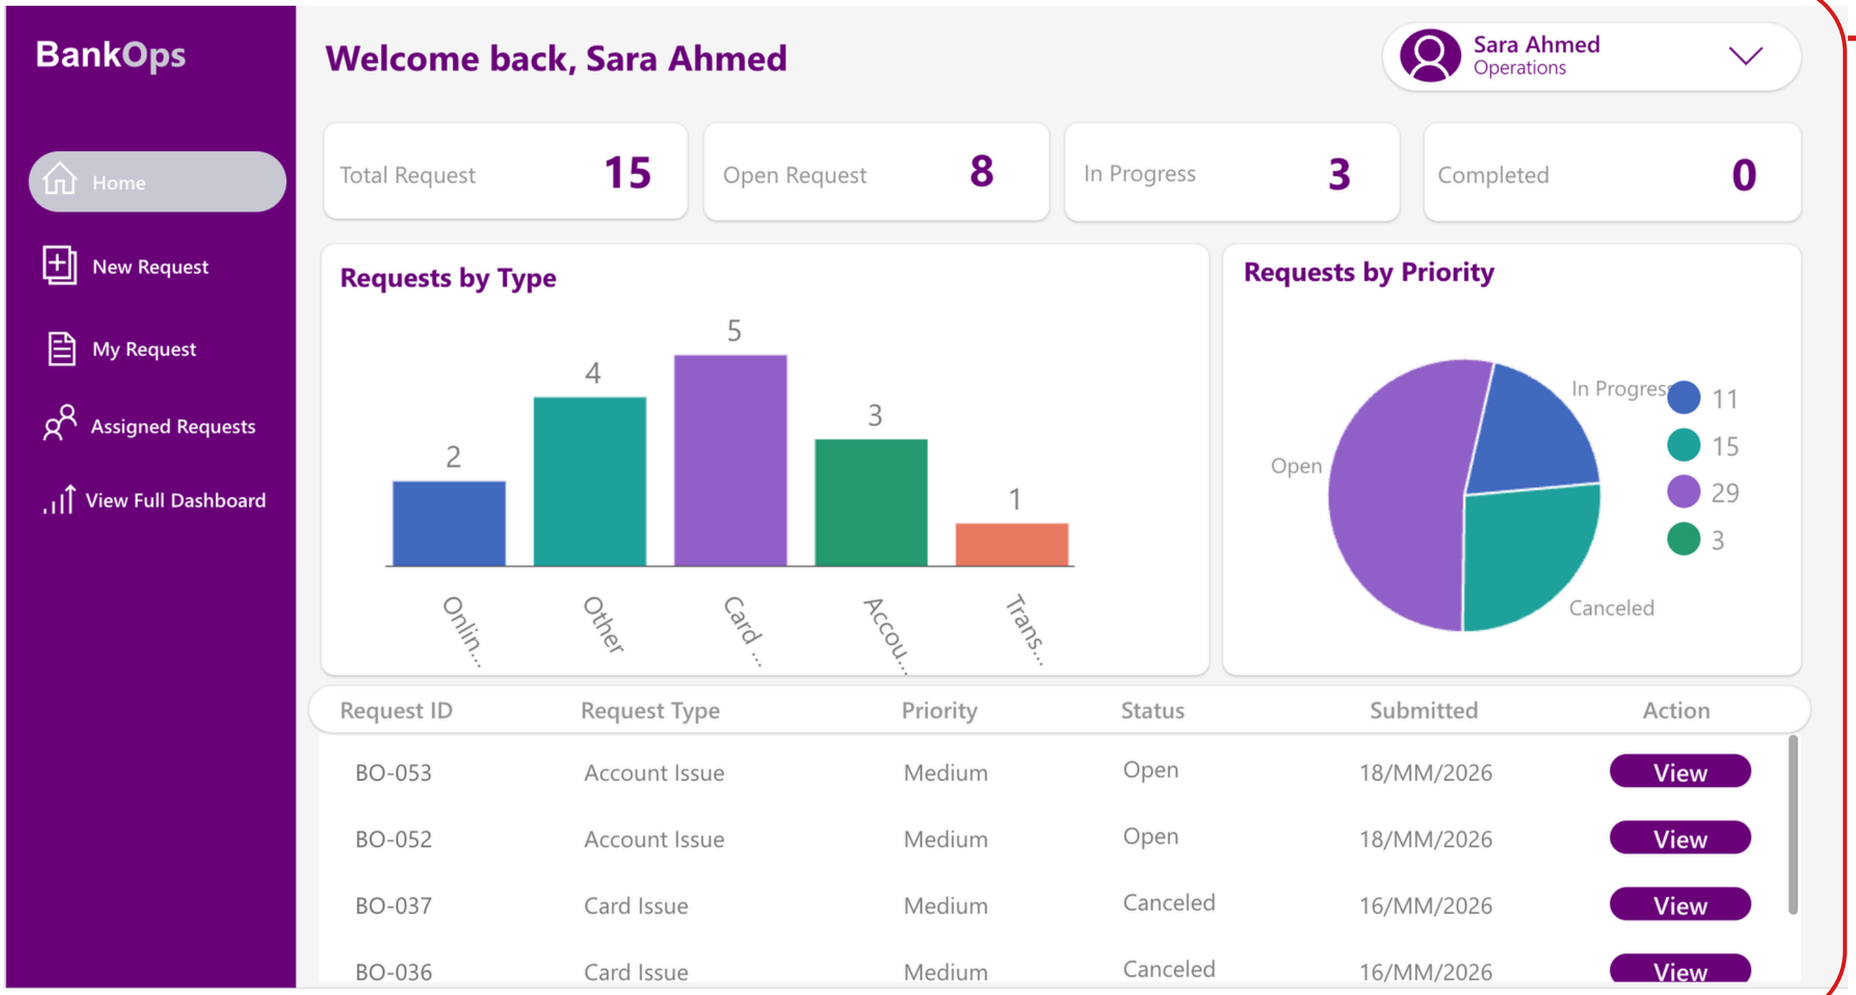

Allows users to navigate to the Settings screen by selecting Settings from the dropdown menu.

Intended to display information about the authentication provider used by the application. This feature is planned for future implementation and is not currently available.

Displays general information about the application, including its version and the technologies used to develop it.

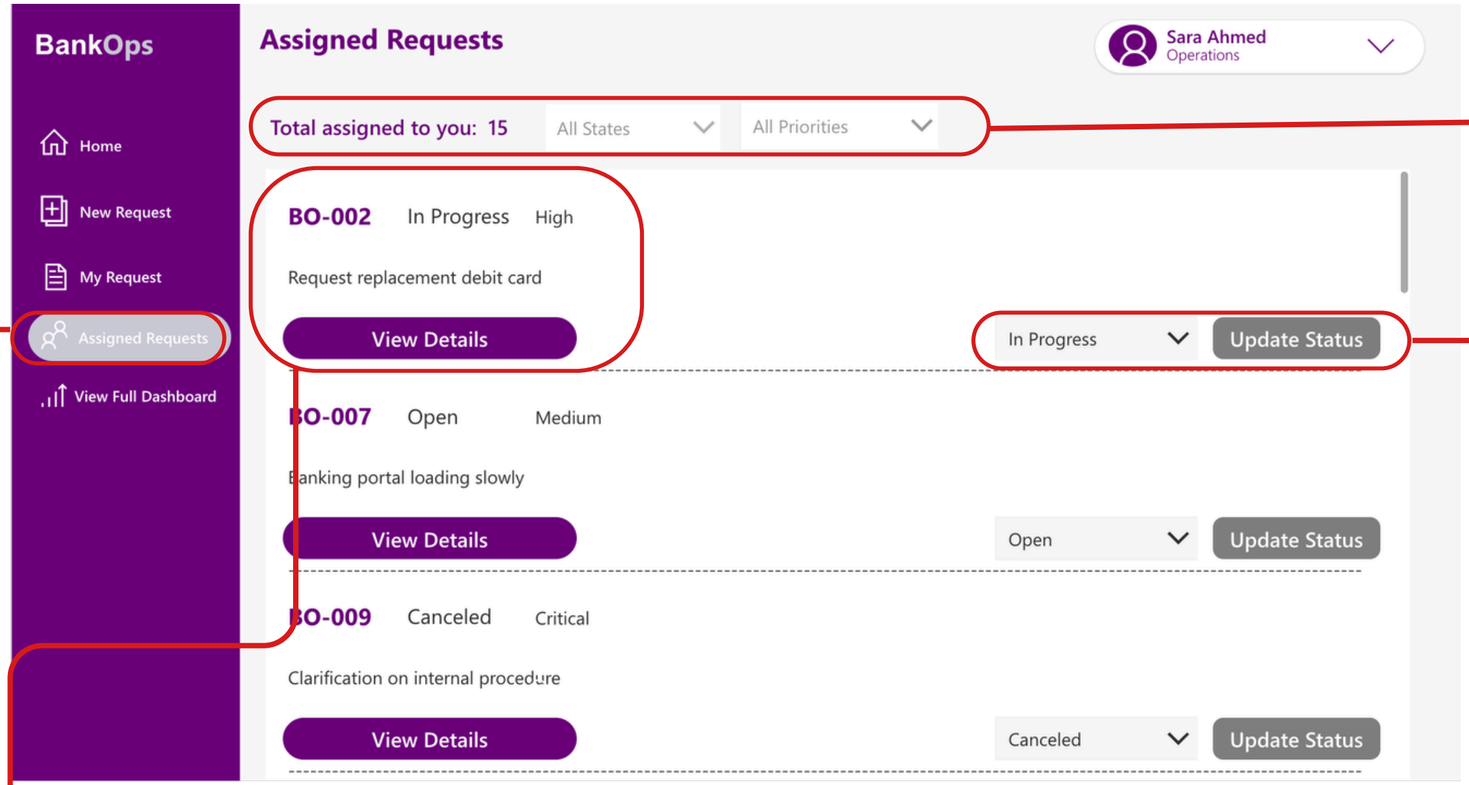

Part 2 — Manager

Manager Home Screen

The Manager Home page provides an overview of requests created by the manager or assigned to them. It displays request statistics, charts, and recent requests based on the manager's request scope, allowing them to monitor and track relevant banking operations requests.

Assigned Requests Screen

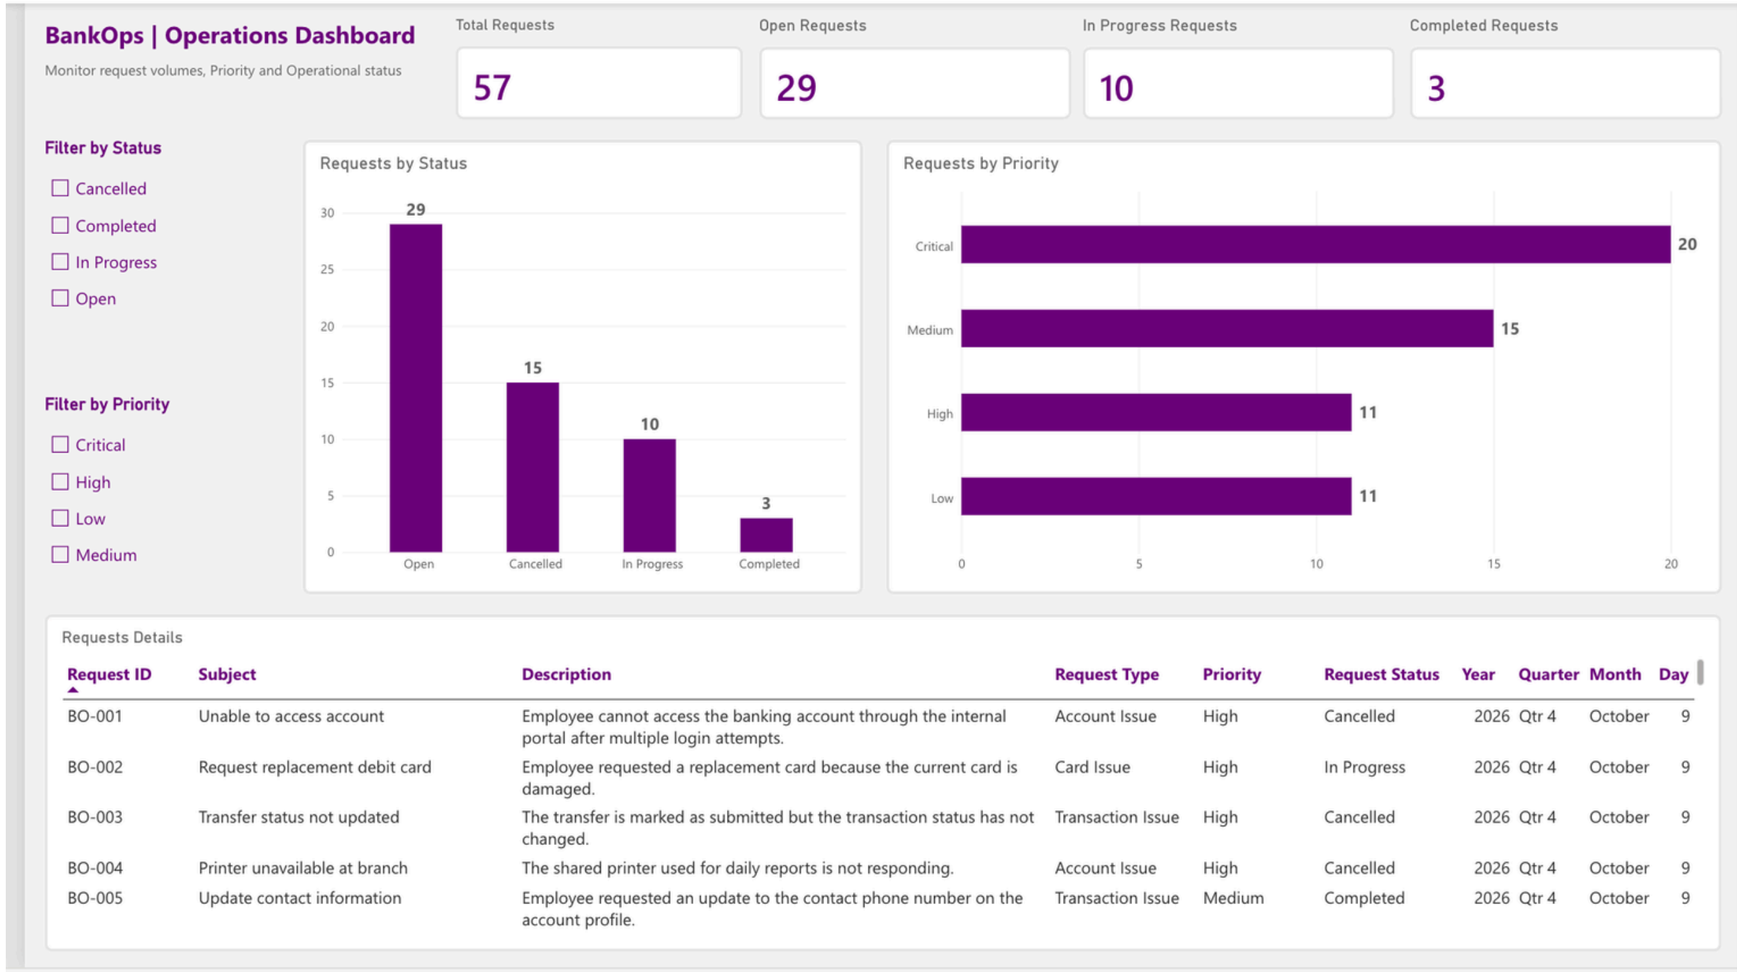

- Displays the total number of requests assigned to the current manager.
- Filters: Allows users to filter requests by state and priority, including viewing all states.

Provides access to the request assignment functionality.

Allows managers to select a new request state from a dropdown list and apply the change using the Update button and Clears the current selections or restores the relevant controls to their default state.

Displays key information for each request, including Request ID, state, priority, and a brief description and Opens the selected request to display its detailed information.

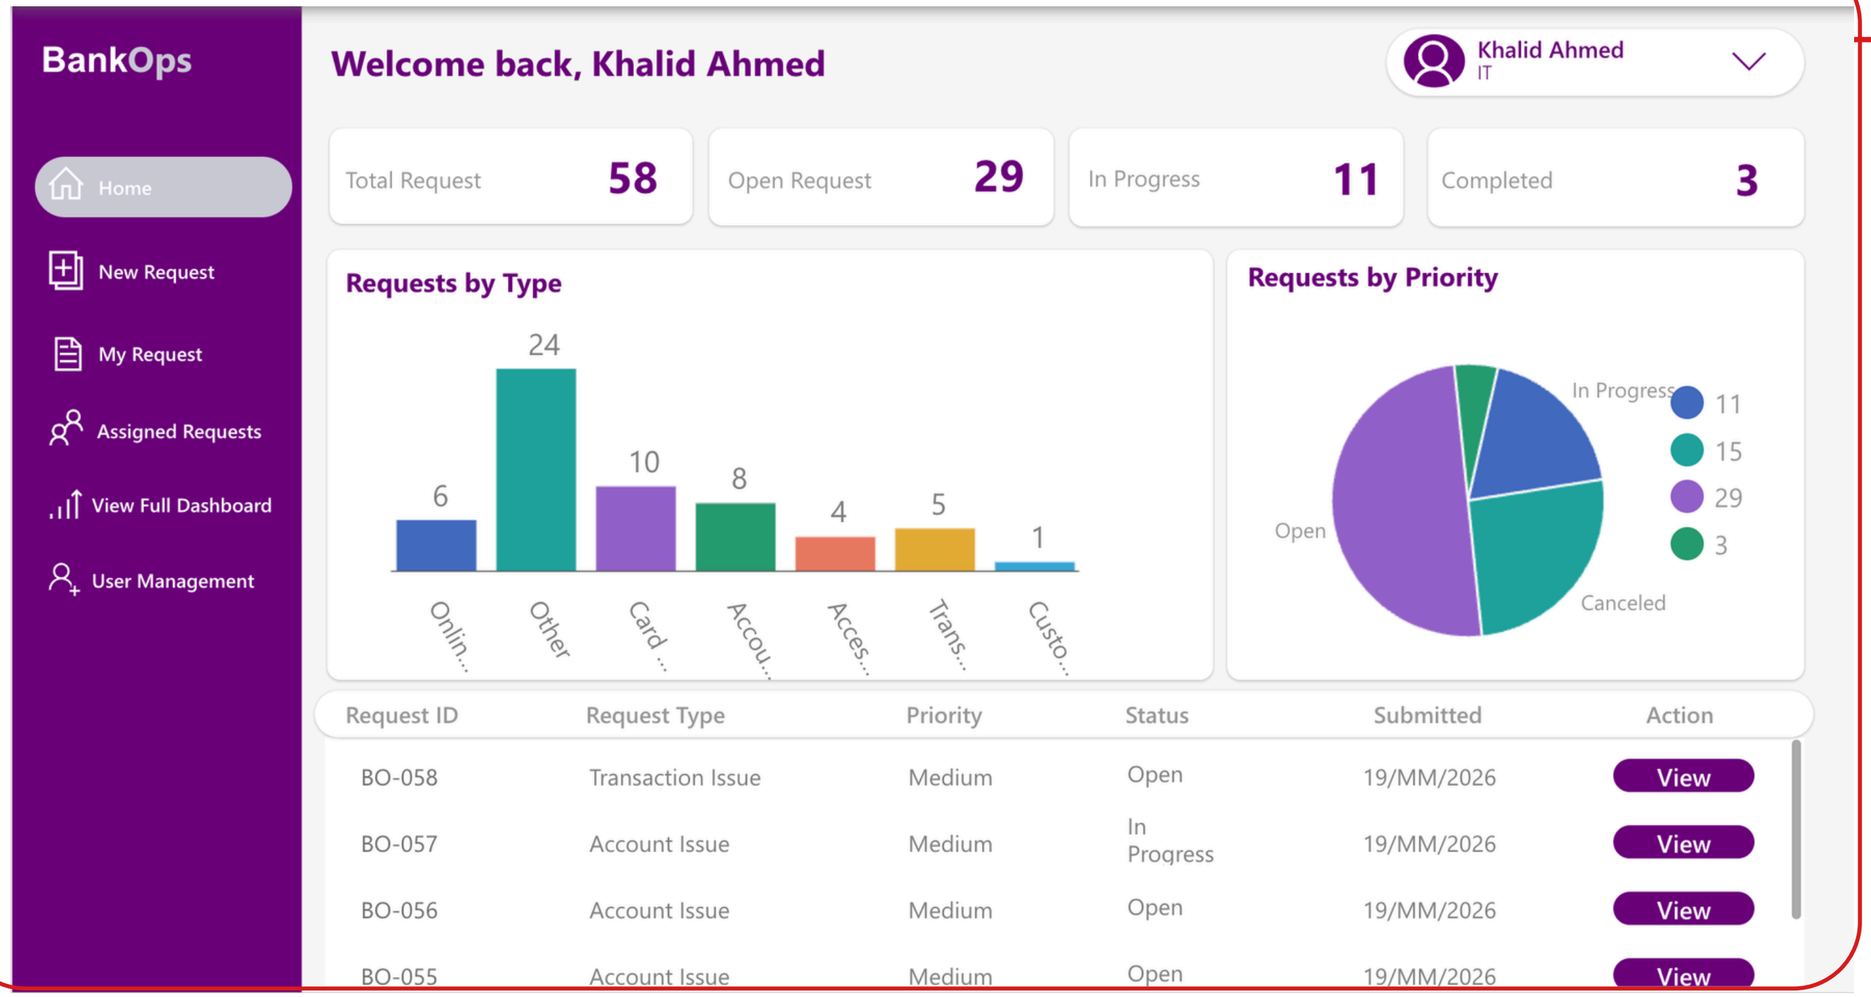

Power BI Dashboard Screen

Opens the Power BI dashboard, displaying request statistics and a breakdown of all request statuses.

Part 3 — Admin

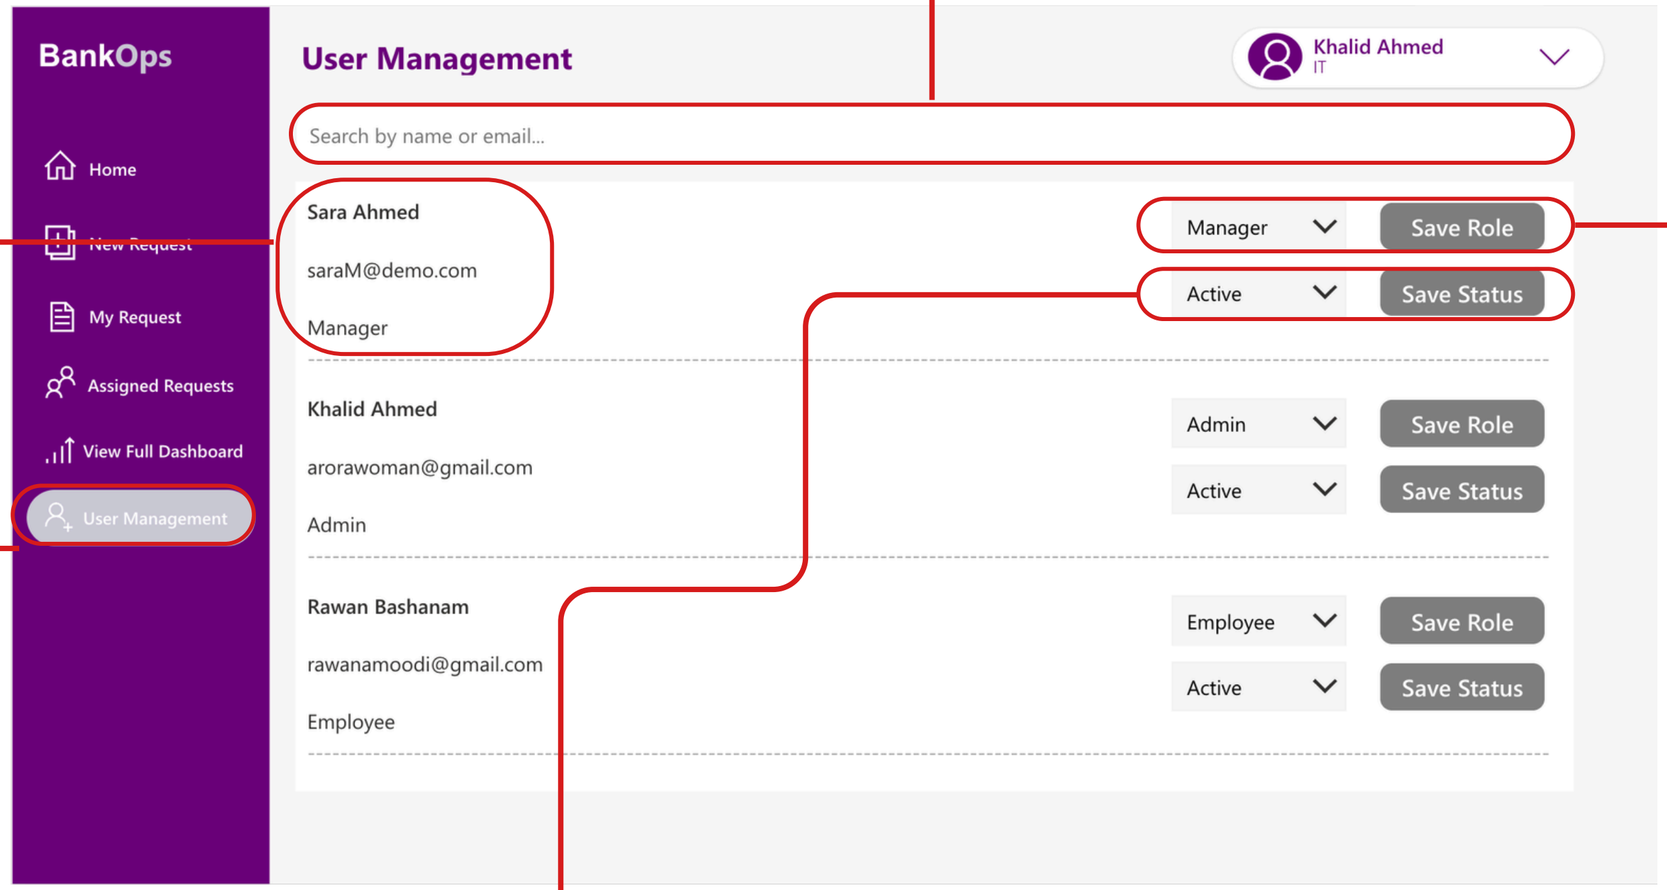

Admin Home Screen

The Admin Home page provides a comprehensive overview of all requests recorded in the system. It displays overall request statistics, charts, and recent requests, enabling the administrator to monitor request activity and track requests across all statuses and priorities.

User Management Screen

Allows administrators to find users using the available search functionality.

Displays the user's name, email address, and current role.

Opens the User Management page, where administrators can search for users and manage their account states and roles.

Allows administrators to change a user's account status to Active or Inactive and save the change using the Save State button.

Allows administrators to change a user's role to Admin, Manager, or Employee and save the change using the Save Role button.